Expenditure on Education

5707. SHRI G.G. SWELL:
SHRI CHIMANBHAI MEHTA:

Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to refer to the answer to Starred Question 171 given in the Rajya Sabha on 24th March, 1995 and state:

(a) what are the reasons to finance higher education when primary, women and vocation education is lagging behind; and

(b) whether Government have any self financing scheme far higher education based on cheap loan from banks for needy students?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER (DEPTT. OF EDUCATION AND DEPTT. OF CULTURE) IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (KM. SELJA): (a) It is necessary to take a holistic view of the education as a whole. While Government accords a high priority to primary, vocational and women's education, higher education has its own importance as it provides qualified man power for the national system including primary, women and vocational education.

(b) Yes, Sir. Commercial Banks are providing educational loans to students pursuing higher education. This facility is expected to increase with time.
